

---

Successful Motogear shopping trip last Saturday

Posted by BobOdenweller - 2008/03/30 21:23

---

Met up with the group in Morrison for breakfast. I was a little late but had enough time to wolf down a couple great pancakes and some bacon. Seemed like a big turnout, probably around 25 people. After breakfast we promptly rode over to Motogear Outlet for one of thier big sales. I scored a Tourmaster heated jacket for under $150 and an Olympia summer jacket that goes with some of thier pants that I already own. For $50 you can't go wrong. Afterward, a group went to do a ride toward Estes Park, but I was a bit slow leaving the store so I was left behind. Oh well, you snooze you lose. Made the best of it and did a nice ride around Golden and Morrison. The weather was wonderful.

=====

Re:Successful Motogear shopping trip last Saturday

Posted by jjobst - 2008/03/31 14:18

---

Saturday was my first time out with the club and my first visit to Motogear where I picked up a Sherpa neck sock that came in handy on the Estes Park ride which switched between sunny spring weather to light snowfall. I also ordered a tank bag for my multi state vacation in July.

John
83 Yamaha Venture

=====