For those of you who regularly ride through Buena Vista, this may give you a reason to spend the night and take in some of the local color. It looks like a really nice place; take a look at their website!

If members mention their affiliation with the club, I will give 10% off now through August at any time except July weekends. In the fall I will have promotional pricing for fall foliage - 20-30% off regular rates.

Thanks!
